

Privacy Policy

The “Marta Per Gli Altri” organization is committed to treating your personal information in accordance with Italian law D.L. 196/03

“Marta Per Gli Altri” , located in via Bodacco, 11 – 28010 – Pisano – (NO) – Italy, is responsible for the management of your personal data. Please refer to the address above for any additional details about our privacy policy or how personal data is protected, collected and used.

All personal information collected by “Marta Per Gli Altri” will only be used for administrative purposes, sending information and updates and promoting our activities.

No personal information that enables the identification of the owner of the information will be disclosed or made public without the owner’s permission.

Any user at any time may access, modify, terminate, or object to the way that their personal information is managed by writing a letter to: “Marta Per Gli Altri”, via Bodacco, 11 – 28010 – Pisano – (NO) – Italy, or by sending an email to the following address: info@martaperglialtri.org Please specify “modification/deletion of personal information request” in the message heading.